

LIST OF WORKS-SCULPTURE

1 Moritz Mueller	The Forest is Moving	Trees grow, fall and decay. Some keep moving in some kind of afterlife. Shall they live. Materials: Flame Jarrah body, Dovetail Jarrah legs.	$3,500 each
2 David Barbour	The Watcher of the Woods	In the stillness between trees, a lone bird keeps its silent vigil. The Watcher of the Woods is sculpted from pine, jarrah, and driftwood, materials chosen for the way they hold both time and transformation.	$3,000
3 Rod Barnes	Sarah	Sarah evolved from some prunings that looked a bit like a pair of legs and a desire to fuse metal with timber. Sarah speaks to me of nurturing, regeneration, reproduction, spirituality, and the coexistence of all things.	$1,620
4 Linda Guinness	Unchained	Two Dogs in a boat with an anchor.	$760
5 Yu-Hua Lan	Where Fragility Holds	This work twists porcelain and wild clay into one form, exploring the tension between fragility and resilience. The shift from white to red and dark reflects my journey across boundaries — between places, people, and languages — in search of connection.	$1,800
6 Charlotte DeLatte	Charlotte DeLatte	A welded sculpture depicting leaves in the wind. Made from recycled steel.	$4,200
7 Carol Mulhearn	Jetty Jumping	Growing up in Busselton Jetty Jumping is a right of passage. In this piece I hope to capture the joy and laughter of this passage surrounded by friends, family and sea creatures. Ceramic, found timber and recycled copper wire.	$1,100
8 Merle Topsi Davis	Smothered Reef with Yellow Fish Basket	Coiled, crocheted, beach combing finds of fishing debris ropes, nets, twines, floats, lures, plastics, shells and seaweed finds.	$750
9 Tony Davis	Her Coat	Carved Wandoo log / figurative	$20,000
10 Mat Mitchell	Ripple	Ripple a captured beauty of a salvaged Tuart stump encased with epoxy showcasing the beauty of what once stood amongst nature perched on a charred jetty pylon. Salvaged from home development and deconstruction, two beautys of old holding old.	$3,290
11 Jodie de Bijl	Stumped	Pottery sculpture.	$985
12 Bronwyn Smith	Around Bones Summit	Inspired by the governments round table summit earlier this year and an animated film at the Top Dog Film Festival about dogs not seeing race or class of others, I have created a circle of dogs around a group of bones.	$3,590
13 Frank Blocksidge	Metal Grass Tree	Second hand water tank with fencing wire fronds.	$1,800
14 Frank Blocksidge	Metal Art Plinth	Created with used mechanical parts.	$1,250
15 Frank Blocksidge	Horse Power	Created to acknowledge the Power, the Beauty and the Strength of Horses. Brought to life from discarded and repurposed truck and motor bike parts.	$2,000

LIST OF WORKS - SCULPTURE

16	Kevin Singer	Inji Surfer	Steel surfer inside a barrel wave.	$6,650
17	Rob Taylor	NEST	Recycled art. Scorpions created from cutlery mounted on found jarrah timber.	$440
18	Hunter Spence	Industree	Shows insight to our future toward our tree population if we continue to destroy the forests.	$200
19	Liam Milner	Tuart's Grip	Forged from discarded metal, a weathered hand rises from the earth cradling a Tuart tree from its seed pod. Rusted textures recall scars of loss, while new leaves and blossoms embody resilience and renewal.	$6,999
20	Carol Mulhearn	Whale Watcher	High fire ceramic sculpture incorporating recycled copper wire, tubing and found timber.	$1,200
21	Chris Tate	Lady Gaza	Life-size woman carrying a child, constructed of rusted tin sheet on a wire armature, mounted on Mari.	$1,200
22	Kim Brown	Ironwood	Ironwood is a kinetic sculpture inspired by the timeless presence of old timepieces and the quiet beauty of nature. The piece features a pendulum, with a tree sculpted from metal swaying gently in the imagined breeze.	$5,000
23	Micheli Maszniew	Can't see the Tuart 4 the "Trees" 25	Recycled, reimagined & repaired wooden toy painted paper & bread board.	$120
