Artist: Julie Macdougall

Title: The Cazneaux Tree

GPS: -31.51872,138.63920

This majestic famous tree can be found just north of Wilpena Pound in the Flinders Ranges. It is known as the Cazneaux Tree. It is a massive, centuries-old River Red Gum that became internationally famous when renowned Australian art photographer Harold Cazneaux captured its image in 1937 and he named it the "The Spirit of Endurance".
